Date: _____

Name: _____

Before you begin connecting with people on Twitter you need to add some interesting and entertaining pictures or videos to your profile page as this is where someone will visit to see what kind of stuff you are posting.

If they visit your profile and you have no profile image or banner and very few posts that are not related to anything they like then why would they be interested in following you?

If your profile has a nice picture of you, a banner and you have a number of posts that interest them, then they are more likely to feel that it is worth following you.

*If you do not know what to Tweet about then look for other people's Tweets and it may help you get a few ideas, also if you find other Tweets that have a lot of likes and re-tweets then simply retweet them and you will see them on your profile
Whenever you create a post aim to create an attention grabbing, intriguing, controversial, emotional headline. Something that grabs someone's attention within the first few words*
